Part II. Rule 12b-25 (b) and (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate.)

Part III. Narrative

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The registrant is, as the result of regular examinations of certain of its subsidiary banks by state and federal banking regulators, reviewing its provision for loan losses and its allowance for loan losses. The registrant is unable to file until such time as it completes its internal review, the audit of its financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003, and other appropriate procedures.

Part IV. Other Information

(1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification.

Donald J. Straka	(262) 695-6010
(Name)	(Area Code) (Telephone Number)

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If the answer is no, identify report(s).

[ ] Yes [X] No

As of the date hereof, the registrant has not filed its quarterly report for the quarter ended September 30, 2003, its annual report for its fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, and its quarterly report for the quarters ended March 31, 2004 and June 30, 2004. A form 12b-25 with respect to such reports was filed on November 14, 2003 and amended on November 17, 2003, March 15, 2004, May 10, 2004, and August 9, 2004, respectively.

(3)	Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding	period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the	e subject report or portion thereof?

[X] Yes [] No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The registrant has not yet filed its Quarterly Report on Form 10Q for the corresponding period in 2003. Accordingly, the registrant cannot make a reasonable estimate of the change in results of operations at this time as the results of operations for both of these periods are still under review. The registrant anticipates that there will be a significant increase in non-interest expense items including professional fees in the quarterly period ended September 30, 2004 compared to the corresponding period in 2003. Additionally the implementation of liquidity and asset reduction strategies as a result of the registrant's current risk position has resulted in a reduction in assets and interest income. The registrant also expects a substantial decrease in mortgage banking revenues as a result of the sale of substantially all of its mortgage banking assets during the quarter and the wind-down of that business segment. As a result, the registrant expects to have a net loss for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2004.
